HOME NEWS.NEW-YORK CITY.

The Rev. Charles McCready and the Rev. Robert J. Draddy, as executors of the will of Father Macdowell, have sold to St. Stephen's Roman Catholic Church the property Nos. 120-122 Lexington-ave., at Twenty-ninth-st. The plot has a frontage of 19 feet 10 inches. The purchase price was $20,300.

Deputy Coroner Weston made an autopsy yesterday on the body of Carl Oscar Sodenberg, the sailor who was found dead on Thursday night in the hallway of No. 19 City Hall Place. From the manner in which the man was found it was thought that he had either been drugged or murdered. The autopsy showed that Sodenberg's death was caused by a large piece of meat which lodged in the larynx. He had choked to death. He had probably while intoxicated gone into a restaurant and eaten a heavy meal.

That always popular feature of the Eden Musee, the great collection of wax groups and figures, is to be still further enlarged. This is the last work of Valt, the Parisian singer. Arrangements are being made for the production of choice musical novelties.

The steamship Gaelic arrived at San Francisco on Thursday, with mails from Shanghai, Hong Kong and Yokohama, due to arrive here Tuesday morning. The next mail for China and Japan will close at 6:30 p. m. on Friday.

The steamer America, from Livingston, Guatemala, which arrived here yesterday, reports that when she passed Sappodilla Bay, off the Central American coast, she saw the wreck of the fruit steamer Jamaica, whose stranding last August has been reported. The Jamaica was breaking up, and will be a total loss.

Two sailors from the British steamship Thames, which plies between Montreal and St. John's, called at the Tribune office last night to say that the boat-awain of the ship, Lawrence McGuirk, had been lost overboard on October 24, just as the ship was leaving her anchorage below Montreal. The sailors said that they had left the ship at Montreal, and that the effects of McGuirk were with the shipping master at that port. McGuirk had a brother, it is understood, living in Hudson-ave., Brooklyn.

The Hamburg-American Steamship Company yesterday sent out a notice that after January 1 Emil L. Boas would be the general passenger agent of the line, and that C. B. Richard & Co. would retire from the general agency. These changes were announced some time ago in the Tribune.

GOVERNOR HILL RETURNS TO ALBANY TO-DAY.
 Governor Hill, after spending a busy day in connection with National Guard affairs, returned to the Hotel Normandie about 6 o'clock for dinner. He afterward visited the Broadway Theatre in company with members of his staff and friends. He expected last night to leave New-York for Albany at 9 o'clock this morning.

NEARLY KILLED BY RUNAWAY HORSES.
 Dr. Henry Ermentraut, of No. 466 Hart-st., Brooklyn, and Mrs. Alfred Winkop narrowly escaped death on Friday night, when a spirited team of horses belonging to the physician ran away. The horses were standing in front of Arion Hall, in Wall-st., the home of the Arion singing society. Mr. Winkop, the husband of the woman, is the lessee of the building. A brother of Dr. Ermentraut who accompanied him had entered the hall while the physician remained in the carriage to look after the horses. Standing near Arion Hall was a brewer's wagon. The horses attached to the latter became frightened and dashed toward the physician's carriage, crushing it to splinters. The horses attached to the carriage then took fright and sprang upon the sidewalk. Mrs. Winkop was standing in front of the sidewalk at the time, and was knocked to the pavement by one of the animals, becoming unconscious. She was carried into her house and was found to be seriously hurt. Dr. Ermentraut was taken out of the wreck after the animals had been stopped with only a few slight injuries. One of the physician's horses was killed.
